Prospective Recruits with College Programs that FIT!

Daryl Banks College Prep Evaluation: Aggressive Playmaker that can play both inside and out. Has the skill set that translates to the 3 Position at the Next Level and the Toughness in the Paint to play a Stretch 4 in Ball Screen Action. Stays in Attack Mode out of the HP and does a good job finishing plays in the paint and through Contact. Tough Matchup in PnR Action with his ability to shoot, pass or take Bigs off the Bounce. Showcased a Motor in these Recent Game Films which will truly Start To Draw More and More Interest! Don't Undervalue that Daryl as that was a Question Mark when you first attended the SA Camp, Keep Consistent on a Daily Basis Showcasing Your Motor and I Predict you will start to Draw D1 Level Interest by Christmas Break! That is no Question something that Moves Talented Players Up College Coaches Boards Not Off of Them. The Talent, Skill Set, Length and Foundation are there so now it's all about playing to your Maximum Potential. One Area that Stood out to Coaches that Evaluated the Games was how Active You are on the Glass, especially on the Offensive End. Pursuing Rebounds over Rebounds Coming to You Indicates Motor and Toughness, and You did a Great Job of Pursuing Boards in Both Games. Keep working on your ability to handle the Ball and make plays off the Bounce when working on your Game. Playing Tough on the Glass and Defense will gain more and more interest, you just work on your ability to play the 3 when no one is watching and stay consistent with your Rebounding and Defense. With time on your Side and my Platform for Selecting College Ready Games, your Recruitment should start to pick up in the 1st Semester from both D2 and LM Programs. Your Skill Set is the easiest to Assess, but playing and staying in Attack Mode in the Games Evaluated makes you look like a whole Different Player than the one I watched last Year at Johnson. Finishes Through Contact when getting Downhill Finishes extremely well through contact and knows how to get downhill and uses his body well to shield off Defenders in the paint.

Although you are more than Capable of taking and making the 3pt shot, don't settle and get extra work in on Shooting Game Shots from beyond the Arc in the Top of Key Area. Shoot Timely 3s, Attack, and make Rebounding and Defense Your D1 Ticket and your Recruitment and Level of Recruitment will take care of itself. Put in the extra work when no one is watching on 3pt shooting out of the high post Area, and taking it off the bounce out of the high post area simulating Situations where they Extend their Pressure. One area that is Exposed on Film that must Improve is being harder to Guard when you don't have the ball in your hands. Stand too much making it easy for opponents to Guard you. Stress the Help D with your Versatility by cutting harder, getting to your Spots and Setting more Ball Screens when Your Man Stands Straight up. Self assess Full Games and you will see that you have multiple opportunities to face cut, set a ball screen, flash to the HP etc. and get to your Spots but you stand and don't make the help D work. Keep Growing that Aspect of Your Game. Right Now Your College Ready Scholarship Strengths that Stand Out are Rebounding & Versatility to Play and Guard Multiple Positions. Coaches look closely at how Big Playmakers/Forwards run the Floor, and you do a Great job of Sprinting lanes and changing ends which stands out in Game Films. Don't relax, keep Growing that part of your Game as it will Matter down the line when College Coaches start Evaluating You in Games. Big Wings/Small Forwards that Sprint Lanes Hard Stand Out as it Forces the Defense to get Back and Collapse, getting Teammates wide open shots or getting you Easy Layups. Sprinting Lanes is undervalued by lots of talented Players, but Truly Valued by College Coaches Researching Potential Recruits. Finally, Although you Finish well in Transition and off the Bounce, you must get a lot more Physical when you are on the block in back to the Basket Post Up Situations. You have the Size and Skill Set to be much Tougher There, but you Get Moved off Your Spots and pushed off the Block by Smaller Opponents. Take that up a Notch and Remember in the Paint Always look to stay Engaged with the Defender, so you catch it in position to Score or draw the Double Team cause you're a skilled Passer out of the Post. That will Elevate Your Game to another Level. Defensively, your Off Ball Defense needs to continue to Improve as you have everything it takes to be an Elite Defender and there are moments on Game Film where You Make D1 Level Plays on the Defensive End. Overall the Upside and Potential is there To Secure a D1 Offer as a Stretch 4 in a System that Runs High Low Action and Sets a Trail Ball Screens. I've Already noticed Growth in just one Month, so focus on the Daily Process it takes to Grow Your Game and I'll do my part on the backend in targeting the Right Programs in the Fall.

Offensive Clips

1. 12:20 Mark 1st Half vs West TX | Good Shot Mechanics and Release on Your 3pt Shot. College Coaches already Know You're Capable of This, They have Reached out about Motor/Toughness so Stay Focused on Growing Those 2 Areas as Your a Scholarship Level Offensive Player Right now.
2. 11:20 Mark 1st Half vs West TX | Although You Missed the Shot, take Note that Help Defense is Poor and When You Cut with Purpose Instead of Hanging out on the Perimeter You are Much Tougher To Guard and Look Like a Whole Different Player. Build off these type of cuts when you don't have the ball in your hands.

Defensive Clips

1. 6:15 Mark 1st Half vs West TX | This is Big. More and More Teams Switch Screens at the College Level and Your Activity and Ability to Guard a 3 or 4 will be Big Down the Stretch for You When We Make our Hardest Push. Take this Effort Back to Johnson!!!
2. 6:25 Mark 2nd Half vs West TX | Another Indicator of High D2 / LM D1 On Ball Defense. We Now Know Your Potential To Be an Elite Level Defender both On and Off the Ball and Rebounder and those 2 are Your Ticket to Securing the Highest Potential Offer. Don't Let Up Take Those Up Another Notch!

COLLEGE READY GAMES TO UPLOAD TO UC PLAYER CARDS

Game #1: A Perfect Game for Daryl to Upload would be 15-18 Points, 8+ Rebounds (5 Offensive) and where you make an Impact on Defense as a Help Defender. If You have Games in Mind like these, especially if you knock down 2+ 3pt shots out of PnR Action and you have to guard a lot of Ball Screen Action, those showcase Your Strengths and Upside.

Game #2: A Second Game to Select from the Late Live Periods to Upload would be your highest Rebounding Total Game & where You Finish the Most Plays in Transition. If you had a Game with 10-12 Rebounds and 5-7 finishes because you Sprinting the Court and finished at the Rim that would be a good 2nd Game to upload to your Player Card.

3 Keys To Elevating Your Game & Increasing Your Recruitment

1. Moving Without the Ball and Setting Better Screens | You do a great job of transitioning from Defense to Offense by running lanes, but get stagnant at times in the HC and Set Brush Screens allowing poor Defenders to get through and Guard You. Setting Body to Body Screens will get You Open To Make Plays or Take More Shots or Lead to Easy Baskets for your Teammate. Moving in the HC will stand out on Games and make you that much tougher to Guard this Year.

2. When Your In The Paint Stay Engaged | You have a soft Touch and Skilled Passer, but too many possessions you are bumped off your Spot so you are not able to Showcase those Traits at the level you could just by battling for Position down low. The HP Skill Set is there but don't underestimate your ability to make a big Leap by Catching it in the Paint in Areas that Stress the Help D. You're too good of a Passer so force Teams to Double You or make them Pay by catching closer to the basket when you go down low.

3. Build a Workout Routine Where You Take Game Shots from Game Spots | Four 55 Minute Workouts where the Focus is Solely on Playing out of the High Post whether You Flash, Simulate Setting a Ball Screen in Pick n Pop situations, or Trail Post Shots will enhance Your Game. ½ of the Workout should be Situational Shots where you shoot 3's and then do the same Routine / Cut and act like they took the 3 away and work on taking it off the Bounce from that same spot.

2025 Daryl Banks | Highlight Video (2:00 Minute Max)

Length: 2:00 Max | 25-30 Clips (80% of the Clips Should be Your College Ready Strengths & 20% Should be Winning Plays without the Ball in your Hands)

Daryl's Highlight Video | 15+ Clips Should Showcase Your Ability To Play out of the HP and Down Low (High Low Plays / PnR Action) Mix in 5 Plays of your Best Clips of you sprinting the Court and Finishing in Transition. After every 5th Offensive Clip add 2 Offensive Rebounds and Putbacks where You Go Get it in Traffic (8 total Offensive Rebounds) that would be a great 1st Highlight Video to Create that Showcases Your College Ready Scholarship Level Strengths.

Daryl Banks Fall Game Plan

Let's Get You an Elite Camp Lists Put Together for Late August and September at the D2 and LM D1 Levels. Review the Evaluation the Day before Each Camp and Notify me in the Message Center 24 Hours Prior to Attending the Camp so I can reach out to the Staff on your behalf and share your Player Card. If Possible I Strongly Suggest Attending the LSU-Shreveport Camp ($90) as I expect to have a Sam Houston State Assistant Coach and a D2 Assistant Coach (Henderson State / Arkansas Tech) on Staff at that Camp. Now that You Know the Summer Layout I've Seen Players in their 2nd Camp Really Stand Out with the Knowledge You Now Have & Knowing my Layout. Not to Mention LSUS is a Top 5 NAIA Program in the Country so if they Offered that could lead to multiple D2 Offers. Finally, you missed the Coaching Call on August Game
